

WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT AND TRAINING

Care Compass Network is committed to advancing the proficiency of our local workforce for the enrichment of network participants and the communities they serve. In the Open Network, participating organizations have access to a Workforce Development Advisor, a variety of networking opportunities, high-priority trainings, and up-to-date workforce trends and best practices.

Access to a Workforce Development Advisor

- Access to a Workforce Development Advisor to provide input on viable resources for workforce challenges and training solutions.
- Assistance with developing effective career pathways and pipelines, including entry-level positions experiencing workforce shortages.
- Support for centralization and standardization of entry level training for health care occupations such as Certified Nursing Assistants, Community Health Workers, Home Health Aides, etc.
- Educate Community-Based Organization (CBO) Board of Directors on value-driven performance, value-based payment, financial risk, and staff competencies.
- Planning support to assist with changes in staffing, utilizing transferable skills in secondary job roles, and scaling up services or programs.

Networking Opportunities

- Attend regional convening events that focus on best practices, emerging trends, and workforce trends.
- Address workforce challenges and needs during discussion forums specifically developed for Executive Directors of CBOs.

Access to High Priority Trainings

- Participate in trainings focused on Core Competencies, Evidence-based Behavioral Health Trainings, and Professional Skills Development.
- Access a variety of required or relevant online trainings in Care Compass Network's online training portal.

Workforce Trends and Best Practices

- Influence workforce transformation and stay up-to-date on current best practices, trends, and innovation in Workforce Development.
